A Peek Inside the Classroom

Stories of real-life experiences. Relevant, fact based, case studies. An interactive lecture format. Informative. Entertaining. Rewarding. Students feel welcome to participate and ask questions.

Pure education - absolutely no specific financial products promoted or sold during the course.

Course Syllabus

The course has 10 sections, separated into two, two and a half hour sessions. Sections include:

SECTION 1

How Much is Enough?

One of the questions we most often hear from course attendees is "How much money do I need to retire?" During this course, your instructor will walk you through how to calculate this figure. It will help you determine where you stand today, where you need to be to retire successfully, and what steps to take now to reach your retirement goal.

"Every year, we pay a lot in taxes. Now that we know how to keep more of what we earn, there's more to save and invest. This class pays for itself and then some."

– Craig L

SECTION 2

Tax Mitigation

While taxes are unavoidable, many opportunities for reducing your tax burden are missed or discovered after it's too late.

Topics include:

- ▶ How does future inflation affect planning now?
- ▶ How to plan for proposed increase in capital gains and ordinary income rates, nullification of step-up in cost basis at death and Roth conversions, and reduction in estate tax exemption
- ▶ Top seven most relevant changes due to tax reform that probably affect you
- ▶ 15 tax mitigation strategies to keep more of what you earn, save and invest (plus bonus topic of Opportunity Zones to defer, reduce and eliminate capital gain taxes)
- ▶ Strategies to reduce taxes on retirement accounts and inherited IRAs under the SECURE Acts and the One Big Beautiful Bill Act.

SECTION 3

Lifestyle Planning

If you aim at nothing, you will hit it. Planning and enjoying a successful retirement starts with knowing what that looks like. What do you have planned for your retirement? Is it aligned with your core values?

You will make assessments and begin designing with-in eight areas of your successful retirement years:

Health & Wellness	Marriage/Family
Faith, Community, Charity	Social
Career	Community
Money	Energy

This step helps you develop your purposes for your years of hard-earned savings.

SECTION 4

Retirement Account Contributions & Distributions

Retirement accounts are like an egg, once the shell is broken, you can't get the mess back in! Contribution and distribution mistakes often can't be undone, and worse, can be compounded with penalties and tax consequences.

Topics include:

- ▶ Cash flow, three types of tax treatments for accounts, contribution limits, backdoor Roths*
- ▶ Nuances of contributions and withdrawals from retirement accounts – IRAs, Roth, 401k, etc. and how to use them to your advantage
- ▶ Required minimum distribution planning to minimize tax impact & avoid 50% penalties
- ▶ Special tax treatment for company stock to save tens of thousands

SECTION 5

Rollovers and Beneficiaries

Properly transferring between retirement accounts while alive, and at passing, avoids BIG tax mistakes.

This syllabus and course are intended to be used for educational purposes only and does not constitute tax, legal, or investment advice.

"Excellent use of time!!! Instructors were friendly, professional and knowledgeable. I learned so much!"

– Stephanie F.

Topics include:

- ▶ Proper rollovers to avoid taxes, both now and in the future
- ▶ Assessing when to do rollovers versus leaving assets in an employer sponsored plan
- ▶ Top five beneficiary mistakes to avoid to prevent unnecessary taxes and unintentionally disinherit loved ones
- ▶ SECURE Act - changes to your retirement accounts and how they might affect you*

SECTION 6

Effective and Efficient Estate Planning

Estate planning isn't just for the rich, it's for everyone.

To be effective means your life-accumulated wealth goes to the right people in the best manner as to not ruin their work ethic. We all know beneficiaries of wealth who were not wise with how they used it.

Efficient means in a way that avoids or minimizes the costs of probate and taxes.

This section covers:

- ▶ Estate Planning intentions and how to assess when to update
- ▶ The four basic documents everyone needs and why
- ▶ Various trusts and which are most relevant for you; or, do you even need a trust?
- ▶ Naming appropriate trustees, successor trustees, trust advisors and trust protectors
- ▶ How potential estate law changes may impact your current estate planning strategy

SECTION 7

Pensions, Social Security and Retirement Income Sources

What's your exit strategy? How will you produce inflation-protected retirement income to maintain your lifestyle?

Topics include:

- ▶ Social Security claiming strategies to maximize benefits and what to expect in the future
- ▶ Assessing pension and annuity payout options to maximize total benefits to you
- ▶ Annuities: Assessing the costs, benefits, limitations and tax treatment

SECTION 8

Investment Strategies

With everything going on politically, socially and economically, how can you be sure you are making the right decisions with your investments?

Topics include:

- ▶ How to structure your retirement investments to be prepared for higher inflation, proposed tax increases, and regulatory changes
- ▶ How to determine and assess the costs and return/risk ratio of your current investment strategy
- ▶ What's needed to design an investment strategy to effectively maintain your lifestyle throughout 30 years of retirement
- ▶ Three principles for successful investing limitations and tax treatment

SECTION 9

Asset Protection & Longevity Planning

After working decades to grow your assets, protecting them from being unjustly taken or catastrophic loss is a worthy concern.

Topics include:

- ▶ Liability protection, titling of accounts, insured limits, umbrella, uninsured protection
- ▶ Protecting against the risk of incapacitation, limiting our ability to work
- ▶ Access to quality medical care and adequate health insurance
- ▶ Understanding and knowing what to expect with Medicare premiums and coverage
- ▶ The three ways to plan for future long-term care needs
- ▶ Assessing life insurance, when it is inappropriate and what types to use for your purposes
- ▶ Re-purposing life insurance for long-term care protection

SECTION 10

Pulling It All Together

- ▶ Research on the top five concerns of the affluent and how to take care of them
- ▶ Review of case studies throughout the course to inventory top opportunities specific to you
- ▶ Set intentions, assess, develop plan, execute, review“

“I have a loved one who was financially devastated through litigation. This class teaches you how to protect your assets.”

– Gabriela C

WHY ATTEND?

42% of Americans are at risk for retiring without enough capital and only 18% feel confident about their retirement preparedness—Employee Benefits Research Institute

With advancements in healthcare and science increasing our longevity, the need for a sound financial plan is more important than ever since we are spending one-third of our life now in retirement.

Rapidly changing economic, social and political environments present us with new challenges, but also opportunities to more effectively plan for retirement. Bull markets, bear markets, high inflation, tax and estate law changes, uncertain Social Security benefits, Medicare changes, and long-term care planning needs (just to name a few) leave many thirsting for knowledge to help in making the right choices.

This course helps you separate the noise from what truly matters when planning and preparing for retirement.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

NestEd's Retirement Planning Course is a robust, five-hour education offering for just about anyone approaching retirement. Whether you recently retired, are planning to retire tomorrow, or if you have 20 years left before you're ready to hang your hat, this course offers new and extensive knowledge needed to be successful now, and during your thirty plus years of retirement.

If you have ever wondered...

- ▶ I've heard about the possibility of tax and estate law changes, but am unsure of what adjustments I may need to make to my financial and estate plans to ensure they are setup in the most tax-efficient manner
- ▶ I have a loved one that needed long-term care...how do I protect my family with LTC planning?
- ▶ I think future tax rates will be higher, so what can I do now to plan for that? I have several retirement accounts... how do I withdraw funds tax efficiently for my retirement "Exit Strategy"?
- ▶ I have investments for my retirement, but I'm worried about a market downturn right before I need to retire...

- ▶ I'm worried about having adequate healthcare insurance, rising healthcare costs and understanding Medicare...
- ▶ I've heard many opinions about when to claim Social Security, but which is best for me?
- ▶ I think I have a decent handle on my retirement plan, but I need a thorough course as a "checklist" to make sure I'm fully ready...
- ▶ It's been more than five years since I had my estate plan reviewed. Does it do what I want it to for my loved ones?
- ▶ My accountant seems to be a historian, reporting what happened each year on my tax return, but I need relevant tax planning ideas to be more proactive...
- ▶ I've heard of the SECURE Act and CARES Act, and the "Securing a Strong Retirement Act" proposal but how do they affect me directly?
- ▶ With today's litigious society, how do I ensure I'm doing everything I can to protect my assets?
- ▶ I am charitably inclined about causes important to me, but how can I maximize my tax savings given the standard deduction changes?

... then this course is for you!

Thinking about retirement is one thing. Planning is another. With new tax law changes, higher inflation and more personal responsibility for our successful retirement, the need for smart, sound strategies has never been more important.

Learn how to:

- ▶ Calculate how much you need to retire and build your full-picture retirement plan
- ▶ Implement investment strategies that protect your income from inflation and market volatility
- ▶ Minimize risk, maximize asset protection, and prepare for unexpected market drops
- ▶ Leverage new OBBBA tax law changes -- including higher SALT and standard deductions, improved QBID deductions, and new savings opportunities -- to reduce taxes
- ▶ Position your investments for changing economic conditions, including new tariffs, Fed leadership, and tax policies
